

Reentry Watch

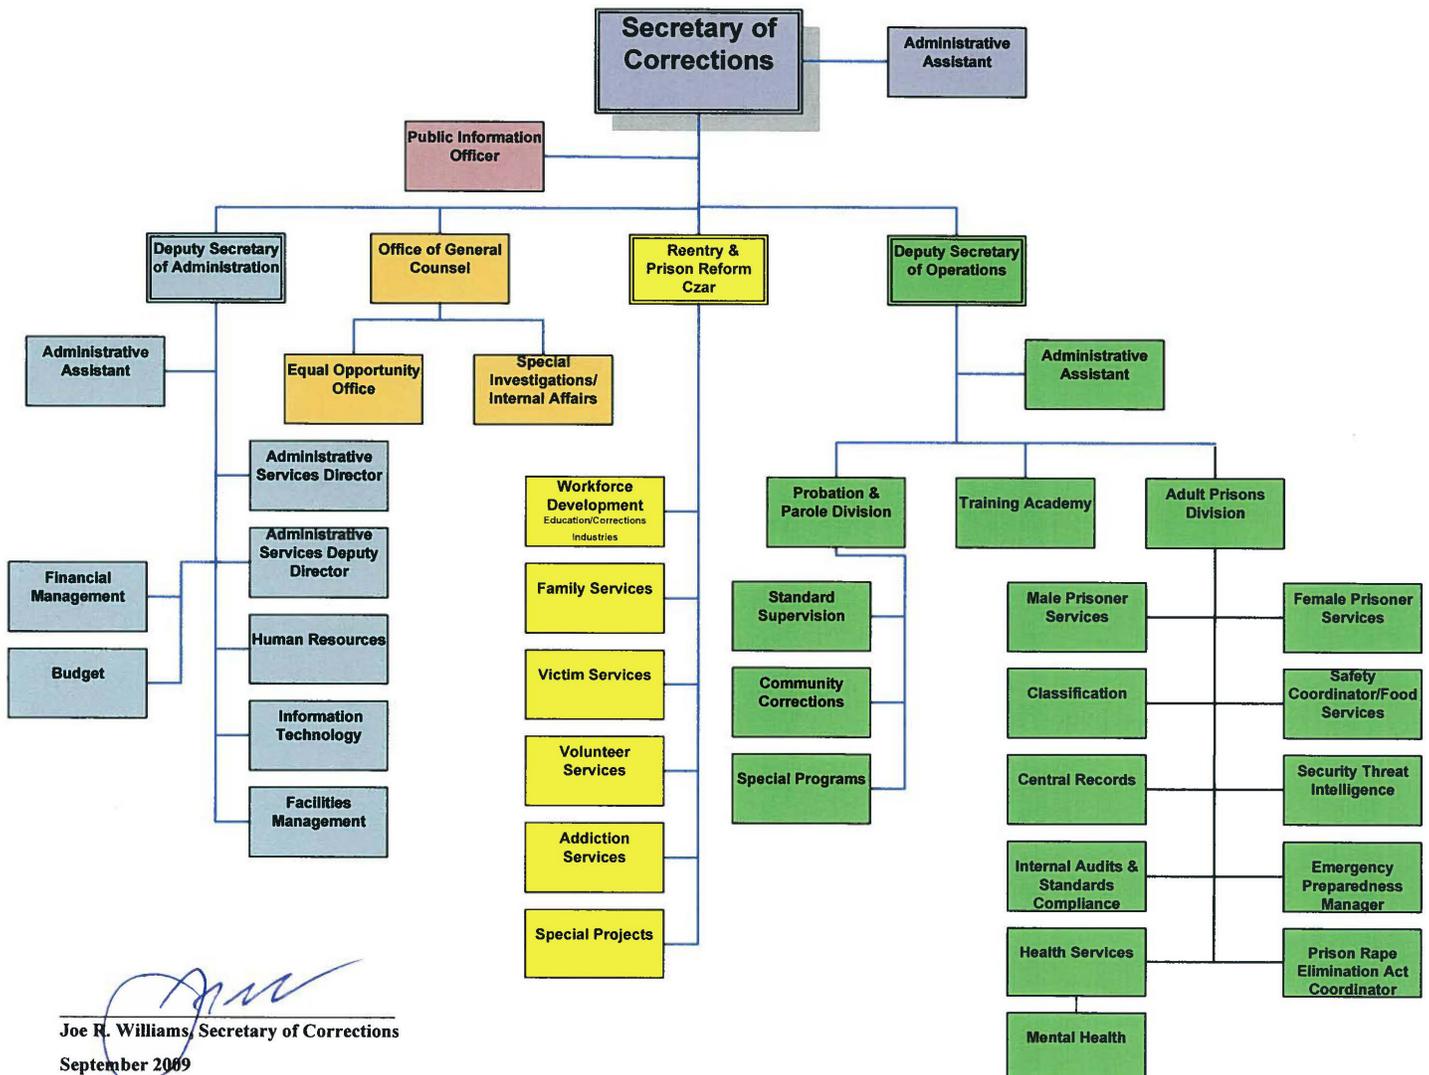

Prison Reentry and Reform continues to move forward. Gail Oliver, deputy secretary for reentry and prison reform, retired from the Corrections Department at the end of September. Bernie Lieving, former reentry bureau chief, is now the reentry and reform czar. He will be taking over all of Oliver's duties. The Reentry Bureau is now the Office of Reentry and Prison Reform. See the updated organizational chart below for details. You can also view Governor Richardson's Task Force on Prison Reform--September 2009 report--by visiting the department's external Web site at <https://corrections.state.nm.us>.

Can you name us?

The Laguna Pueblo Detention Facility donated two full-bred bloodhound female puppies to the NMCD K-9 program. Adult Prisons master K-9 trainer Anthony Ramon is asking for your help with naming the puppies. Please send your suggestions to anthony.ramon@state.nm.us. The puppies' names will be announced in the November E-News.
