New Mexico Corrections Department

Press Release ---

July 30, 2012

Re: Contract Employee Working at a New Mexico Correctional Facility Arrested

A New Mexico Corrections Department contract employee is in custody and charged with Bringing Contraband Into Places of Imprisonment. The New Mexico Corrections Department will hold a press conference, Tuesday, July 31, 2012 about this arrest. We will give you all the information about the suspect and provide you with an opportunity to interview the employee who was involved in the investigation. Secretary Marcantel will also address recent cases involving NMCD employees accused of criminal activity.

There will be video opportunities for you of the prison. We will also provide you with the information on the arrested employee and how you can get the mug shot.

I will contact you tomorrow, July 31, 2012 to give you the time and place of the press conference.
