DEFINITIONS:

- A. RDC: Reception and Diagnostic Center.
- B. RDC Programming: An inmate's participation in the RDC process to include any RDC related activities (i.e. Intake Admission Process, Initial Reception, and Orientation and Initial RDC Classification).

POLICY:

It is the policy and practice of the New Mexico Corrections Department and facilities contracted to the New Mexico Corrections Department that all inmates receive a general orientation at the Reception and Diagnostic Center during initial intake and specific orientation after transfer to any facility.

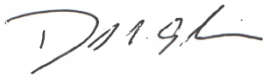

- A. All new intakes shall receive written orientation materials and/or translations in their own language. When a literacy problem exists, a staff member assists the inmate in understanding the material. The information is communicated orally and in writing, in a language clearly understood by the offender, upon arrival at the facility. Completion of orientation is documented on the Orientation Verification form (CD-041001.1) signed and dated by the inmate. [4-4228] [4-4285] [4-4288]
- B. There shall be a program for inmates during the reception period. Except in unusual circumstances, an inmate's initial reception and orientation shall be completed within thirty (30) calendar days after admission. Inmates transferred from one institution to another shall receive an orientation that is conducive to the new institution and completed within one (1) week of admission to the new institution. [4-4287] [4-4290]
- C. All orientation procedures and handouts will have been reviewed and approved by the Adult Prisons Division prior to implementation.
- D. During orientation all inmates shall be provided information addressing the following areas: [2-CO-3C-01] [2-CI-2B-1] [2-CI-4A-9] [2-CI-5A-7]
- Access to courts,
 - Access to counsel,
 - Access to law library,
 - Access to programs and services,
 - Access to media,
 - Procedures that reasonably ensure the safety and well-being of offenders, and
 - Procedures for searches (summary of expected inmate compliance only),

- Procedures for disciplinary actions,
 - Grievance procedures,
 - Freedom from racial, ethnic, gender, and religious discrimination
 - Inmate property and contraband policy,
 - Corrections Industries.
- E. During orientation all inmates shall be provided information about sexual abuse or assault including: [4-4281-1]
- Prevention and intervention,
 - Self-protection,
 - Reporting sexual abuse or assault, and
 - Treatment and counseling.
- F. The policies governing the control of personal property and funds belonging to inmates shall be reviewed and updated annually and made available to inmates upon admission and when updated. [4-4292]
- G. Upon arrival at the facility, all offenders are informed about how to access health services and the grievance system. This information shall be communicated orally and in writing, and is conveyed in a language that is easily understood by the offender. [4-4344]
- H. Written information regarding procedures governing visitation shall be made available to the inmate within twenty-four (24) hours after arrival at the facility. At a minimum, the information will include, but not be limited to, the following: [4-4499]
- Facility address and phone number, directions to the facility, and information about local transportation,
 - Days and hours of visitation,
 - Approved dress code and identification requirements for visitors,
 - Items authorized in visiting room,
 - Special rules for children,
 - Authorized items that visitor may bring to give to the offender (e.g. funds, pictures, and so forth),
 - Special visits (e.g. family emergencies).

- I. Health and safety rules are established and distributed to all inmates assigned to industries. [2-CI-1A-1]

- J. Inmates assigned to industries shall also receive orientation on employment conditions, including safety and operating instructions for equipment, hours of work, the pay plan, special rules, and personnel policies affecting the inmate worker. The orientation shall be documented. [2-CI-3A-1]

- K. There shall be a linkage, such as interdepartmental and interdisciplinary cooperation, among institutional academic education, vocational training programs, and Corrections Industries operations. [2-CI-4A-5]

TITLE: Inmate Orientation

AUTHORITY:

Policy CD-041000

PROCEDURES: [4-4287] [2-CO-3C-01]

A. Initial Orientation: [4-4285]

Upon commitment to the New Mexico Corrections Department, inmates are assigned to the Reception and Diagnostic Center (RDC), located at Los Lunas (CNMCF) for convicted male offenders and located at Grants (NMWCF) for convicted female offenders. Commitments include new intakes, 60-day diagnostic, probation/parole violators, escapees, transfers from out-of state, and for safe keeping of County Jail inmates. Upon arrival at the appropriate RDC location each inmate shall be given an Inmate Handbook which shall include a list of services, list of available policies, and general description of and instructions for access to all of the following: [2-CI-2B-1] [2-CI-5A-7] [4-4228] [4-4281-1]

- Departmental and RDC Rules and Regulation,
- Grievances, Emergency Grievances, and Appeals,
- Education and Vocational Programs and Legal Access,
- Inmate Employment,
- Classification and Custody Levels,
- Good Time Criteria for Earning or Forfeiture,
- Lump Sum Awards,
- Visitation,
- Correspondence,
- Use of Telephones, Telephone Monitoring, and Attorney Phone Calls,
- Religious Services,
- Disciplinary Chargeable Offenses and Sanctions,
- Medical and Behavioral Health Services,
- Canteen and Inmate Accounts,
- Laundry Services,
- Food Service,

- Recreation, Hobby Shop, and Library,

- Legal Services,
- Security, Searches, Inmate Accountability and Escapes (Summary of expected inmate compliance only),
- Inmate Leaves (Furloughs),
- Inmate Property and Contraband Policies, and
- Sexual Abuse and/or Assault.

RDC shall develop and issue each inmate a Quick Reference Guide (Example) attachment (CD-041001.A) specific to RDC.

Inmates will receive written materials and/or translations in their own language. When available, verbal translators may substitute for written translations. When a literacy problem exists, a staff member will assist the inmate with understanding the material. Completion of the orientation process will be documented and maintained on the Orientation Verification form (CD-041001.1). [4-4344]

Inmates may be assisted with notifying their next of kin and families of their admission, if necessary. [4-4285]

All initial RDC orientations shall be completed within four (4) weeks of admission.

B. Facility Specific Orientation: [4-4290]

Within seven (7) days of admission to a facility other than RDC, inmates will receive Facility Specific Orientation. Each inmate shall be provided an orientation and given an Inmate Handbook which will include a list of services, list of available policies, and a specific description of and instructions for access to all of the following: [2-CI-2B-1] [2-CI-4A-9] [2-CI-5A-7] [4-4228] [4-4281-1]

- Departmental/ Facility Rules and Regulation,

- Disciplinary Chargeable Offenses and Sanctions,
- Medical and Behavioral Health Services,
- Canteen and Inmate Accounts,
- Laundry Services,
- Food Service,
- Recreation, Hobby Shop, and Library,
- Personal Hygiene Requirements,
- Legal Services,
- Security, Searches, Inmate Accountability, and Escapes (summary of expected inmate compliance only),
- Inmate Leaves (Furloughs),
- Inmate Property and Contraband Policies,
- Corrections Industries,
- Sexual Abuse and/or Assault.

Each facility shall develop and issue each inmate a Quick Reference Guide attachment (CD-041001.A) specific to that facility.

Inmates will receive written materials and/or translations in their own language. When available, verbal translators may substitute for written translations. When a literacy problem exists, a staff member will assist the inmate with understanding the material. Completion of the orientation process will be documented and maintained on the Orientation Verification form (CD-041001.1). [4-4344] [4-4288]

All institutional specific orientations shall be completed within the first week of admission to that facility.

C. Corrections Industries Orientation:

1. Health and safety rules shall be established and distributed to all inmates assigned to industries. [2-CI-1A-1]
