Policy CD-053000

PROCEDURES: [4-APPFS-2F-02]

- A. Offenders will be assessed probation and/or parole costs at a rate of not less than $25.00 or more than $150.00 a month. Exceptions to this rate schedule will be based on circumstances verified by the Probation and Parole Officer and approved by the sentencing authority. The amount to be paid each month will be determined by the sentencing court for all probation offenders and by the Adult Parole Board for all parole offenders. Any modifications or suspensions of payments during the term of supervision will be recommended by the offender's supervising officer and approved by the court.
- B. Out-of-state parolees and probationers will be required to pay a minimum of $25.00 up to a maximum of $150 per month in supervision fees. Any modification or suspension of payments requires that the Probation/Parole Officer submit his recommendation for modification to his or her immediate supervisor. All general rules, processes and procedures applied to New Mexico cases in regard to payment of supervision fees apply to out-of-state cases required to pay supervision fees.
- C. Out-of-state offenders will be required to pay $100.00 DNA fee. All general rules, processes, and procedures applied to NM cases in regard to payment of DNA fees apply to out-of-state cases.
- D. Offenders who are under parole supervision with probation to follow, arising out of the same conviction which led to the parole will be assessed only parole costs as ordered by the NM Parole Board. Any probation costs ordered will be collected during the period of probation supervision which follows the parole.
- E. Probation/Parole Officers (PPOs) will recommend an amount to be paid each month for each offender based on a thorough investigation of the offender's financial status.
 - 1. The following criteria will be used in evaluating the offender's ability to pay for services provided:

- Is the offender employed? Will he/she be employed upon being granted probation or parole?
 - What are the offender's debts, if any?
 - Will the offender encounter any anticipated debts in the near future (vehicle, housing, etc)?
 - Does the offender have dependents? If so, how many? Does the offender have an alimony and/or child support obligation?
 - What is the offender's and his/her dependents' health/mental condition? Are there medical bills to be paid?
 - What is the offender's overall financial condition?
2. An analysis of the findings will be incorporated into the pre-sentence report for probation offenders and into the parole plan for parole offenders. The PPO is responsible for verifying the information provided by offenders by contacting employers, banks, social service agencies, medical personnel and others. The officer will recommend the amount to be paid to the approving authority and should be particularly careful to relay, in clear terms, the reasons why the specific recommendation was made.
 3. Whenever possible, the PPO shall determine the total amount of restitution to be made to the victim at the time the pre-sentence report is prepared. The Restitution Plan Approval form (CD-053101.2), will be made a part of the pre-sentence report.
 4. In cases where a pre-sentence report is not ordered and the judgment does not specify, the PPO will determine the amount of restitution and payment plan with the offender. The PPO will submit the agreed-upon amount utilizing the Restitution Plan Approval form (CD-053101.2) to the sentencing authority. When a disagreement arises between the offender and the PPO over the amount of restitution and/or payment plan, the PPO will request a restitution hearing from the sentencing judge, who will make the final determination.
 5. In cases where an offender is due to be discharged from supervision and has not fully paid their assessed restitution amount, no less than 90 days from the date of discharge, the PPO will complete a Promissory Note form (CD-053101.3) with details of the offender's continued payments to the victim after their discharge date and instructions on how to submit those payments. A copy of the Promissory Note will be placed in the offender's file and sent to the victim so that both parties are aware of the terms of the note. If the offender refuses to sign the promissory note no less than 90 days prior to discharge, the PPO shall request a status hearing with the Court with a recommendation for unsatisfactory discharge.

F. Assessment of Offender's Ability to Pay Costs and Notification to Offender:

1. The PPO will inquire into the factors relating to offender's ability to make payment for probation/parole services and incorporate his or her findings in any required pre-sentence report or parole plan checkout. This recommendation shall include specific facts and findings justifying the officer's recommendation, and will include a recommendation for the amount to be paid monthly.
2. The sentencing court or the Adult Parole Board will determine the amount to be paid monthly and inform the offender and PPO through the Judgment and Sentence or the parole certificate.
 - a. If the court fails to specify the amount to be paid on the Judgment and Sentence, the PPO will specify an amount on the Order of Probation and will note whether the Judge accepts or modifies that recommendation.
 - b. If the Parole Board fails to specify the amount to be paid on the Parole Certificate, the PPO will send a letter to the Parole Board through the District Supervisor, requesting clarification of the Parole Board's intent for payment. The letter will include a recommendation by the PPO for an amount of payment.
3. Upon notification by the court, the PPO will review the policy and procedures for payment of probation/parole costs with the offender and discuss due dates and the offender's and officer's responsibilities.

G. Modification of Scheduled Payments:

1. Should circumstances warrant a modification in the monthly payment amount at any time during the offender's supervision, the officer will make a recommendation for modification or suspension of payment on the Change in Offender Payment Plan form (CD-053101.1) and forward the form to his or her immediate supervisor. Attachment A may be modified to conform to court requests.
2. The officer's supervisor will either approve or disapprove the recommendation.
 - a. If disapproved, the recommendation will be returned to the officer with the reason for disapproval and no further action will be taken.
 - b. If approved, the supervisor will notify the officer and the officer shall forward the recommendation to the appropriate authority.
3. The court will be requested to approve or disapprove the modification or termination of payments and return the form to the probation/parole district office.

4. The supervising officer will notify the offender of the action and retain the approved form in the offender's file.
5. If the court or Parole Board orders the offender to pay restitution to a victim and any or all of the loss is paid to the victim by an insurance company, the officer shall notify the court or Parole Board of the payment, and request a written order as to whether or not the offender should continue to pay that restitution in addition to the insurance payout. Restitution that was ordered beyond or separate from the amount of the insurance claim will continue to be paid as ordered.

H. Collecting, Disbursing and Recording Payments:

1. During regular meetings with the PPO the offender will be given a remittance slip and a pre-addressed envelope to the Centralized Offenders Payment System (COPS) office with a return address of the appropriate district office as set out in the example below:

Adult Probation and Parole
COPS Office
116 Mecham Street
Socorro, New Mexico 87801-4506

Or

Adult Probation and Parole
COPS Office
PO Box 27116
Santa Fe, New Mexico 87502-0116

The offender will return the remittance slip to the PPO for stamping and mailing or will mail directly to COPS office.

2. Once the payment is received at the COPS office, the COPS operator will enter the payment into the system, according to established guidelines, and deposit it or forward the payment to the intended recipient by the close of the next business day in accordance with state statutes.
3. Payments will be made by money order or cashier's check. Cash, personal/business checks, or blank money orders/cashier's checks shall not be accepted.
4. Offenders required to pay probation or parole fees will make the money orders/cashier's checks payable to the Corrections Department (NMCD). Offenders required to pay DNA fees will make the money orders/cashier's checks payable to the DNA Identification Fund.

- a. Each day a Deposit Slip for Probation and Parole fees and/or DNA fees and cashier's checks or money orders will be prepared and the first five (5) copies of the deposit form will be sent to the state fiscal agent bank.
- b. DNA fees will be identified and deposited into Fund 402, Agency 790, Revenue Source 2993.
- c. On DNA deposits, copies of transmittal and of deposit form will be submitted to:

Department of Public Safety Finance Bureau
P.O. Box 1628
Santa Fe, NM 87504.

5. Offenders required to pay restitution through the Probation and Parole Office must make payments in the form of a money order or cashier's check made out to the victim, unless otherwise directed by the Court.
6. NON-PAYMENT of the required costs is a violation of probation or parole; however offenders shall not be confronted with possible probation/parole violations for failure to meet financial obligations other than those that are specifically conditions of probation/parole. Nonetheless, offender should always be encouraged to pay other financial obligations. In cases of non-payment, the officer will contact the court or Parole Board to advise of the violation, and request guidance as to how to proceed and address the issue, and will follow any direction given on the matter.

I. Auditing:

1. The district supervisor will, on a quarterly basis, audit the COPS to ensure costs are being collected and the offender is not in arrears. Corrective action will be taken on audit exceptions.
2. At least 90 days prior to a case being closed out, the supervising officer will conduct an audit to ensure that all assessed fees were paid and properly recorded. Outstanding costs will be addressed with the offender.
3. The Administrative Services Division (ASD) will prepare district quarterly reports of all fees received and deposited. If any discrepancies are noted, it will be the responsibility of the district supervisor or his/her designee to ensure ASD is notified of the discrepancy and action is taken to reconcile the difference.

4. This policy, procedure and practice shall be made known to staff and reviewed annually. [4-APPFS-3D-24]
