TITLE: Establishment of the New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Division

AUTHORITY:

Policy CD-190000

PROCEDURES:

A. Establishment of the New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Division:

The Corrections Department was established by Section 9-3-3, NMSA, 1978. The Training Academy Division was established by Section 9-3-3, C. NMSA, 1978.

1. The New Mexico Corrections Training Academy (NMCTA) Division Director (Director) shall produce a statement of the academy's mission, which is reviewed annually and updated as needed. The statement sets forth the purpose and goals of the NMCTA. [1-CTA-1A-01]
2. The NMCTA's mission, (CD-190001.A) goals, and objectives are linked directly with and support those of the New Mexico Corrections Department (NMCD). The Director of the NMCTA is accountable to the Secretary.
3. All responsibility, authority, support and liaison within this Division shall be reviewed at least annually and updated as needed. [2-CO-1A-13]

B. Division Director: [1-CTA-1A-04]

The qualifications for the position of Director will include, at a minimum, a Bachelor's degree in an appropriate discipline; five years of related administrative experience; and demonstrated administrative ability and leadership. The degree requirement may be satisfied by completion of a career development program that includes work-related experience, training or college credits at a level of achievement equivalent to the Bachelor's degree. [1-CTA-1A-06] [1-CTA-1A-07] [4-4008]

1. The Division Director shall review and annually evaluate existing curricula for purposes of enhancing course content and developing new training programs.
2. The Division Director shall establish appropriate criteria to be used to coordinate and oversee the recruitment, screening and hiring process of new Correctional Officer employees.
3. The Division Director shall provide for the proper accounting procedures to produce the Division's budget. The Division Director shall further provide for a system of internal accountability of revenues appropriated by the State legislature and other funds received from federal sources. Accounting procedures shall reflect governmental generally accepted accounting principles.

4. The Division Director shall further implement appropriate rules, regulations, policies and procedures to govern the development of curriculum criteria covering:
 - a. Basic training requirements of the NMCD's Correctional Officer Cadet employees; and
 - b. Advanced and specialized training to upgrade and increase the knowledge and skills of Department support staff, supervisory and management personnel.
5. The New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Division Director shall assure the department's employee training programs are coordinated and supervised by qualified staff members. Instructors shall be trained to respond to emergency health-related situations. They shall be trained in the administration of first aid and methods of obtaining assistance. [2-CO-1D-01] [1-CTA-3A-19]

C. Goal Formulation:

The Director formulates goals for the NMCTA and translates them into measurable objectives. These goals and objectives shall be formulated in conjunction with the operating budget and include the participation of designated Section Chiefs. [1-CTA-1A-02]

D. Program Evaluation:

NMCTA programs will be analyzed and evaluated at least annually to determine their contribution to the NMCTA's mission. The NMCD's training plan shall provide for ongoing evaluation of all pre-service, in-service, and specialized training programs. A written report shall be prepared annually. [2-CO-1D-03]

E. Organization:

The NMCTA shall provide a description of the organization that places staff in related units, promotes efficiency, and provides a clear chain of command from entry level positions to the Director.

The description includes a New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Organizational Chart attachment (CD-190001.B) that groups similar functions, services and activities into administrative subunits. The organization description shall be reviewed at least annually and updated as needed. [1CTA-1A-09]

1. The organizational structure, as depicted by the New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Organizational Chart attachment (CD-190001.B), is designed to facilitate the needs of the NMCTA, its employees and students in order to enhance the mission, goals, and objectives and provide internal accountability.
2. The Director is responsible for the overall operation of the NMCTA including formulation of policy and day to day direction. The following positions report directly to the Director:

- a. Business Manager: Responsible for fiscal management, budget preparation, purchasing, and accounting.
- b. Deputy Director: Responsible for the NMCTA operations, including oversight of Basic and Advanced Training, and Recruitment and Retention Sections.
- c. Human Resource Bureau Chief: Responsible for personnel management for the NMCD, including testing, hiring, staff orientation and cadets, transfers, layoffs, recalls, promotions, dismissals, suspensions, demotions and all related personnel actions. Advises administrators, supervisors, and employees to insure proper procedures are used in all personnel actions. Supervises staff assigned to the Human Resources Bureau.
- d. Administrative Secretary: Responsibilities include maintaining the Director and/or the Deputy Director's appointments and calendars, screening calls, processing mail, maintaining office files, typing, management of clerical personnel in the administrative office, and other tasks as assigned.
 - 1) Generate Training Certificates for Cadets/Students completing training courses at the NMCTA.
 - 2) Maintain copies of training certificates issued by the NMCTA, to include Correctional Officer Basic Courses, Training for Trainers, Defensive Driving, Specialty Courses, etc. Copies of the following shall be kept, files and maintained in the NMCTA Administrative Secretary's Office:
 - a. Class roster;
 - b. Training certificates for the class;
 - c. Oath of office; and
 - d. Class schedule.
 - 3) Maintain a written log/schedule of approved requests for classroom and gym facility assignment.
 - 4) Maintain the Master Training Plan report annually.
 - 5) Provide NMCTA annual report data to the Public Information Office to include in the NMCD Annual Report.
- e. Food Service Administrator: Responsible for providing complete food service for the Correctional Officer Cadets, NMCTA and Central Office staff, including three nutritionally adequate, palatable, and attractive meals per day produced under sanitary conditions and at reasonable costs. Meals are to be served Monday thru Friday of each week excluding State approved holidays.

F. General:

The New Mexico Corrections Training Academy Division Director shall organize the Division into as many Sections as the Director deems necessary to provide NMCD employees with complete, viable and thorough training through the development of training programs.

The policies and procedures for operating and maintaining the academy and its satellites are specified in New Mexico Corrections Department Chapter 19 which is accessible to all employees. These policies and procedures are reviewed at least annually and updated as needed. [1-CTA-1A-11]

Training programs developed shall be in accordance with overall NMCD philosophy, policies and procedures, and must meet all American Correctional Association (ACA) Standards for Correctional Training Academies.
