Parole offenders convicted and/or who are serving a parole term on or after July 1, 2004 are eligible for Earned Meritorious Deductions (EMD) at the time the probation and parole officer determines that the parole offender has complied with all the conditions set forth by the Adult Parole Board. All special conditions must be met including restitution (if imposed) and supervision fees. All counseling (if imposed) must be completed and there must not have been any violations of parole conditions.

1. Parole offenders whose current conviction relates to a Sex Offense cannot be considered for good time credit while on parole.
2. Parole offenders whose current conviction relates to a Serious Violent Offense should not be considered for good time credit while on parole unless significant mitigating factors exist.

Qualifying parole offenders must have served a minimum of 50% of the supervision term imposed prior to a recommendation for Earned Meritorious Deductions (EMD).

Offenders on dual supervision shall only be considered for EMD while on parole if the sentencing Judge of the probation term imposed will allow the offender to be released from probation supervision at the same time as parole.

C. Recommendation Procedure:

Upon petition from a parolee (Petition for Earned Meritorious Deduction (EMD) Attachment (CD-055001.A)), the supervising officer shall determine if the parolee qualifies for consideration for Earned Meritorious Deductions (EMD). The supervising officer shall submit the Recommendation for Earned Meritorious Earned Deduction (EMD) Attachment (CD-055001.B) indicating the amount of recommended EMD along with justification for the recommendation to the officer's immediate supervisor for approval.

The supervisor shall either concur or not concur with the recommendation for EMD and forward the Petition and Recommendation for EMD to the Region Manager for approval. If approved, the petition and recommendation for EMD will be forwarded to the PPD Director or designee for approval. If approved by the Director or designee, the recommendation packet shall then be forwarded to the Adult Parole Board for final approval or denial.

The Adult Parole Board has the final authority to review recommendations from PPD to grant full EMD, partial EMD or deny EMD to an adult parolee.
