AUTHORITY:

Policy CD-024400

PROCEDURES: [2-CO-5E-01]

A. Inmate Donation Procedures

1. Completed inmate debit memo will be submitted to the facility volunteer coordinator, usually the chaplain, who will sign and forward the ticket to the facility's business manager, who in turn will forward it to the facility's Inmate Trust Officer. .

NOTE: In order for the Inmate Trust Officer to return donated money to the facility volunteer coordinators, the name and facility must appear on the ticket.

2. Donated monies become the property of the facility religious trust fund for approved faith group purchases.

B. Outside Donation Procedures

1. All donations made from outside the NMCD must be approved by the facility warden or designee, in writing, prior to accepting the donation.
2. Donations must be in the form of a money order, made out to the NMCD facility with the religious trust fund title printed on it.
3. Donated monies become the property of the facility religious trust fund for approved faith group purchases only.
4. Monies will be deposited into the Inmate Trust bank account. The deposit amount will then be credited to the facility religious trust fund.

C. Religious Trust Fund Management [5-1B-4044]

1. The NMCD shall prevent an inmate's NMCD account to be placed in a deficit balance through elective withdrawals toward the religious trust fund.

2. Facility religious trust funds will be managed using Generally Accepted Accounting Principles [GAAP].
3. The facility religious trust fund will show sub-accounts for each active faith group as recognized by the “Faith Group Overview.”
4. Temporary, miscellaneous sub-accounts may also be set up for the collection of inmate donations for approved, specific charitable contributions.
5. Supervision of facility religious trust funds will be the responsibility of the warden, or designee.
6. Maintenance of the facility religious trust funds will be the responsibility of the facility volunteer coordinator, chaplain or designee.
7. The facility religious trust fund account shall be reconciled monthly against the facility business manager’s database report by the warden, facility volunteer coordinator, or other designee. Any discrepancies found shall be brought to the facility business manager’s immediate attention for further research.

D. Purchasing Procedures

1. Purchase recommendations may be made by the Program Services manager, facility volunteer coordinator, chaplain, or inmates from a given faith group.
2. Legitimate faith group needs may be purchased with proper authority.
3. The facility warden, or designee, shall have signature authority and final purchase approval.
4. Purchase receipt procedures will follow fiscal policy and accepted facility procedures.

E. Charitable Contribution Procedures

1. The administrative staff volunteer coordinator, chaplain, or inmates may make recommendations for charitable contributions with final approval from the facility warden, or designee.
2. Charitable contributions will be limited to quarterly disbursements to approved charities and must total a minimum of $25.00.
3. Inmate monies collected for charitable contributions will be managed separately from faith group fund sub-accounts until collection is complete and disbursement is made.

4. Charitable contributions MAY NOT be sent to any organization that would provide a benefit, either directly or indirectly, to an inmate and/or their family.
5. Charitable contributions will be disbursed via check through the Inmate Trust bank account subsequent to a debit memo from the Program Services manager, volunteer coordinator or chaplain.
